Australia: Hearing that over ten thousand were waiting to welcome her, Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother braved a tropical downpour to attend a Bushman's Carnival, in Brisbane.

This was the Queen Mother's last engagement, in Queensland. So the rodeo with its exciting steer-riding contest, made a thrilling finale to a memorable Royal Visit.

Yet, perhaps, Her Majesty (with her ~~affectionate~~ love of children) will best remember the fond farewell she had received from 32,000 school-children at the Exhibition Grounds. Those eager, youthful cheers will remain ~~the~~ <sup>a</sup> golden memory of a 25,000 mile tour...
