

2-F84001

THE SECOND QUEBEC CONFERENCE.

Mr.Churchill leaves the Citadel at Quebec to attend a reception to which all members of the Conference, from High Officers to Typists have been invited by Mr.Mackenzie King. The British and Canadian Prime Ministers are given an enthusiastic welcome as they drive off.

Chiefs of Staff, who, with Germany nearly out, are increasing attention on Japan. The diplomats, experts in political warfare, are also present. In this group, with Mr.Churchill, President Roosevelt and Mr.Mackenzie King, are Mrs.Churchill, the Earl and Countess of Athlone, and Mrs.Roosevelt. The plans being made in Quebec will be clear to Japan in good time.