

SHIPMENT:		SUBJECT: ESCAPE SCENES FILMED ON MINED "Princess Astrid"
Own to Conville		ASTRID Belgian cross channel steamer
Rota 7 M'tone
Free L. 90
Date	Recd:	Orig / Neg.	: Dupe / Neg.	: Lav. /	: F.G. / B/W	: Release / B/W	: Ed / Master
Date of Issue		Neg. Track	: Pos / Track	: Mute /	: Comb. /	: Length /	: ft.

INDEX		LOCATION OF STORY
English Channel		English Channel.
		SHOT LIST
Disasters - Shipwrecks 7-15	I . L.V.	G.V. aerial shot sunken Astrid with salvage tugs. French coastline in background.	10 Mac.
Scenes only (not sound)	2. C.U	Aerial shot of the Astrid submerged.	12 Mac.
Hildreth, vs Maj. Gen	3. M.V.	Interview with Maj. Gen Hildreth. (1st. 4ft. for lead-in) 'Our most vivid recollection of our experiences on the Princess Astrid was the behaviour of the passengers'.	17 M'tone
(and not sound as shown after scenes 3-14)	4. M.V.	G.V. passengers wearing life jackets. (Voice continues over this and following scenes to Sc. 15). 'After the last lifeboat had been launched.	6 F/L
Air View - British 1, 2, 14, 15.	5. S.V.	Passengers in life jackets. 'There were still 100 passengers	3 "
Shipwrecks - British Foreign Services Channel Steamer Note	6. S.V.	Pan passengers searing life jackets and smiling. 'On the Astrid, without, in their minds	9 "
	7. M.V.	Small vessel coming alongside Astrid. 'at least of any immediate prospect of rescue	4 "
	8. M.V.	Sea. 'However, then,	3 "
	9. S.V.	French tugboat Captain. 'Out of nowhere came a French tug	2 "
	10. M.V.	Passengers clambering into lifeboat. 'The Captain lashed his tug	6 "
	11. M.V.	Stern of Astrid with lines to lifeboat. 'to the side of the sinking ship	7 "
	12. M.V.	Sea.	2 "
	13. M.V.	Passengers jumping aboard lifeboat. 'and with great risk to his tug, his crew and himself, he took the rest of us off.	8 "
		P.T.O.

Cuts of Issue No:	LIBRARY NO. ORIG 62.C.
Used In Issue No: 49/51
Unused:
SELECTED SCENES. 2142 I

14. C.U. Aerial shot of the submerged Astrid.
'Thus came a very, happy ending to a rather unpleasant experience.'

14

15. L.V. Aerial shot of the Astrid.

10

SHOT LIST

1. L.V. Aerial shot of the submerged Astrid with salvages tug. French coastline in background. 10 Mac.
2. C.U. Aerial shot of the Astrid submerged. 12 Mac.
3. M.V. Interview with Maj. Gen. Hildreth. (Int. shot for lead-in)
'Our most vivid recollection of our experiences on the Princess Astrid was the behaviour of the passengers'. 14 M'one
4. M.V. G.V. passengers wearing life jackets. (Voice continues over this and following scenes to No. 13)
'After the last lifeboat had been launched. 6 P/L
5. G.V. Passengers in lifejackets. There were still 100 passengers 3 "
6. G.V. Ten passengers wearing life jackets and sailing. 'On the Astrid, without, in their minds 2 "
7. M.V. Small vessel coming alongside Astrid. 'at least of any immediate prospect of rescue 4 "
8. M.V. See. 'However, then, 3 "
9. G.V. French tugboat captain. 'Out of nowhere came a French tug 2 "
10. M.V. Passengers clambering into lifeboat. 'The Captain rushed his tug 6 "
11. M.V. Stern of Astrid with lines to lifeboat. 'to the side of the sinking ship 7 "
12. M.V. See. 2 "
13. M.V. Passengers jumping aboard lifeboat. 'and with great risk to his tug, his crew and himself, he took the rest of us off. 8 "

LIBRARY NO. 17.0

ORIG 62 C

Date of issue No:

Used in issue No: 49/51

Unused:

INDEX

English Channel

Princess - Astrid

1-12

Interview, 15.11.42

3

Passengers, 15.11.42

1, 2, 11, 12

Lifeboats - Astrid

15.11.42

15.11.42