A.B.A. BOXING

It's the amateur championships at Wembley, with Cooper of Althan slogging out the light-heavies final with Maclean of Scotland. Mac's the one in the darker vest - who just missed with that right. And now it's Cooper swinging away.

Maclean stopped a beauty there! If there's not a lot of skill, there's certainly plenty of action in these bouts. And Cooper's the winner on points.

On the left Foster of Birmingham, on the canvas Wells of the R.A.F. in the light-middleweight final. Six-feet-two Wells has swept all before him this season, but he's all over the place tonight.

He's dead game and eager but the ref. forces him to take the full count of eight that's now obligatory.

The Ref's stopped the fight and Foster's the winner.
