

BERLINHECHT BEATS FINCH

The fight is on in Berlin between Gerhard Hecht, on the right, and the British boy, Albert Finch. Hecht, who is the German light-heavyweight champion has got plenty of weight behind his punches. Now he slams in a couple of good 'uns, and Finch is down!

That really shook the Britisher, but he's soon on his feet again. Finch is probably the better boxer of the two but he's got his work cut out to avoid those punches from his heavy opponent. Watch him get out of trouble as Hecht opens up.

Hecht throws a right and a left - and Finch is down again!

Back comes Finch for more, though he's in no good shape. The German keeps up the attack. The British boy can't go on taking such punishment, and in the ninth round he has to give up. Gerhard Hecht is declared the winner.