

PATHE JOURNAL
6 RUE FRANCOEUR
Paris 18e.

Paris, October 7th. 1954

PREVIEW OF AUTOMOBILE SALON

Special coverage

Negative developed : 500 ft - 150 meters

The 41st. Automobile Salon opened to-day in the Grand Palais in Paris. The crowd is already coming in to see the world's automobile production and newest developments.

1300 firms are exhibiting their latest models, of which 107 are automobile manufacturers, 93 automobile body-designers, 117 manufacturers of motobikes and automobile accessories.

This year already one record is broken: the number of foreign manufacturess : 228 of them are exhibiting in the Grand Palais.

Among foreign Exhibitors the British Automobile Industry is widely represented by Sports, tourists and luxury cars of British makes. Mr. and Mrs. Smith from Cardiff have come over to Paris to see the exhibition and seem happy to admire the latest Hillman exhibit.

Mr. Raymond Lewis, famous American deseigner, and father of the revolutionary Studebaker "CHAMPION" is also present to see the different tendencies of automobiles fashion...

In the crowd, are also the "Porgy & Bess" Gerschwin Opera stars Irene Williams, Gloris Davy and Leslie Scott, making a tour of the most famour exhibitors' stands and productions.

5-4-49