NEWS FROM U.S.A.

In the nearest thing to a rodeo, at Lewiston, Idaho, motor cycles back and throw their riders in apparently impossible hill-climbing contests. All they've got to beat is the force of gravity!

These contests are not to see who can get to the top first - but to see who can get to the top at all! Its even dangerous for the spectators.

Ride him, Cowboy! But no, another rider bites the dust!

Lined up for our camera - the Harrison brothers of Tennessee
Fey (3) Gordon (4) David (6) Charles (7) ^{John (9)} Kenneth (10) Haskell (13)
Robert (14) Samuel (15) Carmel (16) George (18) Guy (21) and baby Ivan. Thirteen in all - and all boys. Enough for a football team, referee and linesman as well!
