OLDEST PASSENGER

Luisse Rissmann is the oldest living woman in Germany. In West-Berlin-Charlottenburg she recently celebrated her 106th birthday in very good health. Grandma Rissmann is still active and helps her grandson in his tobacco-shop.

One of her dearest wishes is now being fulfilled. PAA invited her to fly with her daughter Elisabeth from Berlin to Hannover. She enjoyed her first first air-trip immensely and declared if she had a second chance in life she would certainly become an air stewardess!
