

News of the Day
July 22, 1957, Vol. 28-#296

TENNIS: WORLD'S TOP PERFORMER!

Blond Low Hoad - recent king of the amateurs turned pro - meets Pancho Gonzales, professional monarch, at Forest Hills, New York. Hoad serving.

Hoad hits the line, but Gonzales returns for the point.

Unfaltering against his powerful opponent, Hoad strikes for his share of points.

But Gonzales has too many weapons for the young Aussie. Big Pancho wins the match and tourney of champions - the best in the racquet world.