

RODEO THRILLS AT SALINAS!

The stands are swollen for the Salinas Rodeo in California, an Armed Forces Day cheering section adding to the lively proceedings. Score one for a powerful Brahma bull!

The hump-backed animals are a real test of courage, skill and determination. This fellow stays up long enough to get a feel of it...but then the clown has to divert the bull's attention. He's the truly brave one.

Here's a bull that's all wound up. But it's sure no merry-go-round! Stop the world, I want to get off!
