

STIR, WISH, XMAS COMING !

PATHE NEWS: 59/96

Rock-n-roll and normal comic business suspended. Tommy Steele and Benny Hill, appeared in a new act at Cabdy Hall. They were chefs - sort of -. The irresistible Benny and his high spirited partner tried their hands at concocting the biggest Christmas pudding in the world. The ingredients were given by Australia.

Benny should have known better. This was no time to snatch a quick one.

Try again..... To get back to the Australians: they sent the ingredients, and the big 160-pounder will be presented by the High Commissioner to the Lord Mayor, for the Wellington Boys' Club in South London. Tastes pretty good so far.

As well as the big one there'll be 100 smaller puddings for the provinces. Come on, girls, you helped to make it. Try it and see.
