MORE FIGHTING MEN FROM CANADA.

Another contingent of Canadian troops arrive in Britain... all willing and ready to "take a crack at Hitler" (as one chap put it)..... Cigarettes are always welcome; even if they're thrown at you.

The contingent includes a number of veterans of the last war; who will doubtless be only too glad, to give the young 'uns a tip or two, on how to do the job.

All these men are under the command of a Colonel, who rose from the ranks.

HM! A n optimist!
