MRS .ROOSEVELT IN GLASGOW.

The President's wife has certainly had a busy time since she reached this country. These pictures show the conclusion of more than a week's true American hustle embracing the West, the Midlands Lancashire and Northern Ireland. Now it's Glasgow, where Mrs. Roosevelt waves a cheery "bon voyage" to crews of ships going down to the sea.

CHEERS AND MUSIC

Few visitors to these shores have seen so much in so little time, and even fewer have received such a wholehearted welcome as is afforded to Mrs. Roosevelt. Now she is on her way to join what is probably one of the biggest assemblies of shipyard workers it has ever been her privilege to meet. In this yard are gathered fifteen thousand people who, in their lunchtime, at the instigation of grand old Sir Harry Lauder, show how glad they are to see America's First Lady.
