TITLE.:- ACCIDENT OR CRIME ?

Picture.:- In the dead of night, without any warning, a terrific explosion shook the locality.

Half a house situated in a crowded district suddenly shot skywards flinging half a score of sleeping people to instantaneous doom. A number of others were very badly injured.

The cause of the catastrophe was a mystery for it occurred when all the occupants of the -- --house should have been in their beds. That so many were accounts--

--for the heavy roll of casualties. They hadn't a chance, the place was transformed into a pile --

--of debris in less time than it takes to tell. It is suspected by the authorities that the explosion --

--was deliberately planned, with an ulterior motive. If that is so, let's hope the perpetrators get all they deserve - and more, - much more !
