Prince of Abyssinia visits the Military College of Saint-Cyr.

-Near Paris-

Picture.:- Leaving his home in Abyssinia for the first time, the fifteen-year old Prince Asfaou Wosan visits Paris, and with Marshal Franchet d'Esperet, reviews French troops at the Military College of Saint-Cyr.

Although young, he has shown great interest in European politics and customs,--

--and is making this visit during a comprehensive official tour--

--to extend his knowledge of the Western nations. His father was crowned Emperor of Abyssinia a year ago--

--amid scenes of lavish pageantry at which the Duke of Gloucester--

--was present representing King George.. The Prince will--

--shortly visit England and make a tour of the industrial centres.

AND SO, FOR THE PRESENT, I LEAVE YOU !
