DARK BLUES AT HENLEY - Oxford crew enter final stage of training for the Universities' Boat Race.

-Oxfordshire-

Picture.:- The Dark Blues are rather optimistic about their chance of winning this year.

Chadwick, Healey, and Myette look confident and - er - happy.

Holdsworth, stroke, and Ellisen, bow pull their weight fore and aft.

While Smith and Poole show up as very useful members.

Kent
Erskine-Grum & ~~A~~ realize how serious it all is !

The President C.M. Johnston looks perplexed about something, --

--and Pritchard the cox hates the camera anyway !

They're more at home doing this than standing for photographs. There isn't too much practice time--

--between now and the race. The Coach is--

--getting down to detail and only the best work satisfies him now ! Perfect paddling ! The Dark Blues look good ! What odds ?
