LIVING DOLLS - - Japanese kiddies of California parade as animated dolls in quaint Festival of Nippon.

-U.S.A.-

Picture.:-

The parade of the Japanese dolls ! It takes place in a small fishing town on-- --the coast of California. The parents of nearly all the children--

--are Japanese fisherfolk who comprise the-- --bulk of the population. The obi is worn, - - the favourite cross-word for 'sash'. The-- --kiddies love to shed their drab school--

--clothes and dress up for this Japanese dolls' festival.

The boys may look in, but mustn't come-- --in. All the same they're keen on supporting their kid--

--sisters or sweethearts. The dolls parade--

--prize winner ! Why ! She's more like a doll than a real doll is !
