

BOYS' BILLIARDS CHAMPIONSHIP

KEEN FINAL IN LONDON.

Picture.:-

Billiards for boys ! Although the youths play like matured champions. Donald Cruickshank, of South Shields, defends his title of Boy Billiards champion. When playing last year's match, Donald started with a break of 130, which rather depresses his game young opponent Harry Stokes, of Glasgow. There's Harry, demonstrating a few anchor canons. In the match of 750 up, Cruickshank wins by 132, and receives the Cup from the well-known table-tennis star Victor Barna.

Donald Cruickshank therefore retains his title of Boy Billiards

Champion of Britain, and Stokes congratulates Donald for giving him some tough breaks. Well, well !
