H.M.S. Ceylon

A veteran of ~~the war in the Far East~~ ^{World War II} comes back into service, as a Ship's Company boards H.M.S. Ceylon, in Portsmouth Dockyard, for her commissioning ceremony.

The cruiser (which has undergone an extended refit, and now has many modern amenities) received a blessing from the Chaplain of the Fleet. The third of her name - the "Ceylon" also saw distinguished service during the Korean War.
