

Further pictures from Suez show how the raising of the last of the obstacles from the bottom of the Canal was watched by the Secretary-General of the United Nations, Mr Hammarskjeld, with the Emergency Force Commander, General Burns.

And here goes the first convoy of ships to pass through the Canal since November last. It included a freighter from Soviet Russia, but none flying the Red Ensign of Britain. Egyptians, watching, ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ signified their approval in the usual manner.

Other news pictures from Egypt show a visit by President Nasser to the German Industries Fair in Cairo.

Meanwhile --- in the shadow of the Sphinx, ~~xxx~~ who has had good reason lately for looking more than ever like a Sphinx --- a meeting of two Arabian tribes: which was celebrated in the traditional fashion with ~~xxxxxxxx~~ dancing ~~as for dance~~ <sup>a dance. Tickets included supper</sup> ~~also~~ <sup>also</sup> This tradition is ~~xxx~~ observed by the horses.